

Contents

Introduction	ix
About the author	xiv
1 Lessons from the Life of Karl Reichelt	1
Call to specialise in reaching out to Buddhists	3
Learning on location	4
Reichelt's ministry	5
Some aspects of Reichelt's ministry	10
Cost associated with Reichelt's ministry	12
Reichelt's missiology	14
Some limitations of Reichelt's missiology	19
Five lessons from Reichelt's ministry	22
Conclusion	31
Pause for reflection	32
I God	35
2 The Buddha And Jesus Christ: Their Lives In 12 Acts	37
Gotama's cultural and religious milieu	37
The 12 acts of the Buddha	41
Gotama's birth	42
Gotama's early life	44

Gotama's quest for enlightenment	47
The Buddha's enlightenment	50
The teaching of the Buddha	52
The parinibbāna of the Buddha	56
The Life Of Christ In 12 Acts	59
The early life of Christ	63
Pause for reflection	75
3 God And The Buddha	77
Did the Buddha point to aspects of God's work? . . .	79
Did the Buddha predict the coming of Jesus Christ? .	83
A Christian response to the Buddhist world	88
Jeremiah, religious images and the nations	92
Abraham's concern for the people of Sodom and Gomorrah	93
Pause for reflection	98
4 God and Dhamma	99
Some Buddhist understandings of the Dhamma . . .	100
Venerable Buddhadasa's understanding of the Dhamma	104
Jesus as Dhamma ?	108
What exactly do we mean when we say God is 'per- sonal'?	112
Should we compare God to the Dhamma or the Buddha?	118
Conclusion	123
Pause for reflection	124
II Self	125
5 Buddhist And Christian Understandings Of Self	127
What did the Buddha mean by anatta ?	128
The Five Aggregates	129
The Culasaccaka Sutta	133

The ‘Chariot Story’	137
Madhayamaka understanding of self	139
The Yogācāra understanding of self	139
Some understandings of self in Zen Buddhism	141
A further reflection on ‘mind-only’ ideas	143
A summary of the main understandings of self within Buddhism	147
Humans as non-self but God as self: a conversation starter?	148
Toward an understanding of the Christian view of self	149
A perspective from St Paul	152
Pause for reflection	157

III Salvation 159

6 Karma And The Transfer Of Merit	161
Liberation in Buddhism: Salvation in Christianity . . .	161
The writer’s understanding of karma	166
Buddhist understandings of karma	168
The ‘middle man’	174
A Buddhist response	179
Mahāyāna Buddhism and the transfer of merit . . .	183
Three paradoxes of the death of Christ	187
Conclusion	192
Pause for reflection	192
7 Christ’s Triumph Over Dark Forces	195
The Tree of Shame and Christ’s Triumph	196
The Tree of Life and the End of Suffering	203
Conclusion	206
Pause for reflection	207
8 Conclusion	209

CONTENTS

God	210
Self	211
Salvation	212
Appendix	215
The Theravāda Tradition	215
The Emergence of Mahāyāna	217
Theravāda Stages of Spiritual Development	219
Three key differences	221
The Ten Stages of the Bodhisattva Path	223
The Path to Enlightenment in Zen Buddhism	227
Glossary of Buddhist Terms	233
Bibliography	241